INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING CLAIM

DEFINITION OF PARTY OF INTEREST

The California Revenue and Taxation Code, Section 4675, states in part:

For the purposes of this article, parties of interest and their order of priority are:

- (a) First, lien holders of record prior to the recordation of the tax deed to the purchaser in the order of their priority; and
- (b) Then, any person with title of record to all or any portion of the property prior to the recordation of the tax deed to the purchaser.

REQUIRED INFORMATION AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION

If you consider yourself to be a party of interest in the sale of tax defaulted property as defined above, please complete numbers [1] through [11] on the CLAIM FOR EXCESS FROM THE SALE OF TAX DEFAULTED PROPERTY form and, if applicable, numbers [12] and [13]. See additional requirements for ASSIGNMENT OF RIGHT or APPOINTMENT OF AGENT below. You must also submit the following documents to support your claim as a party of interest:

In case (a) lien holders must submit the original recorded document or, if unattainable, a certified copy of the recorded document and original documentation such as title policy or any other original documentation which supports the claimant's right to all or portion of the excess proceeds. A payment schedule, note secured by deed of trust, partial release or partial reconveyance will also be required as well as a declaration under penalty of perjury stating how much was paid off and how much was still due and payable as of THE DATE OF SALE of the property by the Treasurer and Tax Collector. The declaration must include the calculations indicating how the total amount of the claim was determined.

In case (b), owners of record must submit the original recorded deed or other document by which they acquired and interest in the property. If the original document is unattainable, a certified copy of the recorded document and original documentation such as title policy or any other original documentation which supports the claimant's right to all or portion of the excess proceeds.

Parties of interest must submit a clear copy of valid photo identification (i.e., driver's license, state ID, passport). Expired photo identification will not be accepted.

ASSIGNMENT OF RIGHT / APPOINTMENT OF AGENT

If a party of interest assigns his or her right to claim the excess proceeds, an Assignment of Right to Collect Excess Proceeds form must be completed in addition to the Claim for Excess from the Sale of Tax-Defaulted Property form. Any attempted assignment that does not comply with this requirement shall have no effect. Any person or entity who in any way acts on behalf of or in place of any party of interest in respect to filing a claim for any excess proceeds provided for in this section, shall submit proof that the amount of excess proceeds available has been disclosed to such party of interest and the fact that said former owner or lien holder may file for such excess proceeds on his or her own behalf. If a party of interest appoints an agent to act on his or her behalf, an Authorization for Agent to Collect Excess Proceeds form must be completed in addition to the CLAIM FOR EXCESS FROM THE SALE OF TAX DEFAULTED PROPERTY form. Documentation as outlined above in REQUIRED INFORMATION AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION will also apply when the right to claim excess proceeds has been assigned or an agent has been appointed to act on the claimant's behalf. When a claim involving an assignment or right has been approved, the refund warrant will be issued in both the assignor's and assignee's names.
